herein.

47. These Defendants deny the allegations of paragraph 47.

48. These Defendants deny the allegations of paragraph 48.

These Defendants deny Plaintiffs are entitled to any relief.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

1. These Defendants aver Plaintiffs lack standing to assert any claim on behalf of Chris Turner and, as such, Count II in its entirety and all allegations of Count III referring to Chris Turner are due to be dismissed.

2. These Defendants aver that the Complaint and each count fail to state a cause of action entitling Plaintiffs to relief.

3. These Defendants deny Plaintiffs have been wronged and deny Plaintiffs are entitled to any relief.

4. These Defendants aver that Plaintiffs did not suffer an illegal adverse employment action.

5. These Defendants aver Plaintiffs did not engage in protected activity.

6. These Defendants aver this Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction.

7. These Defendants aver Plaintiffs did not timely file a Charge of Discrimination.

8. These Defendants aver Plaintiffs have not met the preconditions for maintenance of a discrimination suit.

9. These Defendants aver this suit is not timely filed.

10. These Defendants aver all Plaintiffs' claims, as alleged in this Complaint, which occurred more than one hundred and eighty (180) days prior to the filing of their Charges of Discrimination with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC”) are barred by the applicable statute of limitations and/or the Plaintiffs’ failure to comply with the procedures required by 42 U.S.C. § 2000(e).

11. These Defendants aver Plaintiffs cannot pursue any claim that is not “like or related” to the claims raised in their original Charges of Discrimination which are the statutory predicate for those claims.

12. These Defendants affirmatively plead that the Plaintiffs’ claims are barred in that Plaintiffs failed to satisfy the jurisdictional prerequisite for maintenance of any such action.

13. These Defendants plead estoppel and/or laches and/or waiver.

14. These Defendants aver Plaintiffs’ own actions or inactions caused or contributed to any injury or damage hence Plaintiffs are barred from recovery.

15. These Defendants aver all employment decisions were made on a legitimate, non-discriminatory, and permissible basis.

16. These Defendants aver all employment decisions were made on a legitimate, non-retaliatory and permissible basis.

17. These Defendants aver that all employment decisions were based on a reasonable and rational basis.

18. These Defendants deny the existence of any custom or policy that allegedly resulted in the violation of Plaintiffs’ rights.

19. These Defendants plead immunity.

20. These Defendants deny they discriminated against the Plaintiffs. However, if the fact finder reaches a contrary conclusion, the Plaintiffs cannot establish that they were damaged or injured by any action of any Defendant since the same decisions would have been made absent any impermissible consideration.

21. These Defendants aver Plaintiffs failed to mitigate their alleged damages.

22. These Defendants aver Plaintiffs lack standing to prosecute this action.

23. These Defendants plead the statute of limitations.

24. Defendant City of Auburn avers it is immune from punitive damages.

25. The individually named Defendants, sued in their official capacity, are immune from punitive damages.

26. The individual Defendants aver they cannot be personally liable under a Title VII suit.

27. These Defendants aver Plaintiffs have not properly alleged and cannot present evidence that any practice or procedure of Defendants has a disparate impact on African-Americans.

28. These Defendants plead the statutory cap applicable to any claim for damages.

29. The individually sued Defendants aver the Complaint fails to allege any acts of wrongdoing by them and each is due to be dismissed.

30. To the extent §1983 claims are brought against the individual Defendants; said Defendants plead immunity, qualified immunity and/or good faith.
